Rajiv Sharma, J. (oral):

By the medium of this petition the o rder dated 20th July, 2002 has been assailed by the petitioner. The petitioner was proceeded exparte by the Financial Commissioner (Appeals) in revenue revision.

Mr. Anup Rattan, Advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner has fairly stated that since the petitioner has been proceeded exparte, she may be permitted to file appropriate proceedings for getting the exparte order set aside.

The prayer is genuine and not opposed by the respondents. Accordingly the petitioner is permitted to take appropriate steps for getting the exparte order dated 20th July, 2002 set aside. However, it is
